Celebrate

Words & Music:
Bonner & Gordon

```
A              G                    F#m                  F
Slippin' away, sittin' on a pillow, waitin' for night to fall.
A                  G
A girl and a dream, sittin' on a pillow,
F#m                                       A
This is the night to go to the celebrity ball.
Satin and lace, isn't it a pity?  Didn't find time to call.
Ready or not, gonna make it to the city,
This is the night to go to the celebrity ball

CHORUS:
A                 G
Dress up tonight, why be lonely?
A                                            G
You'll stay at home and you'll be alone; so, why be lonely?

Sittin' alone, sittin' on a pillow, waitin' to climb the walls.
Maybe tonight, depending how your dream goes,
She'll open her eyes when he goes to the celebrity ball

CHORUS:

OUTRO:
A                     G
Celebrate, celebrate, dance to the music!
Celebrate, celebrate, dance to the music!
Celebrate, celebrate, dance to the music!
