

Cast Your Fate To The Wind

Words & Music:
Carel Weber & Vince Guaraldi

Vince is best known as the man who provided the soundtrack for all the "Charlie Brown" cartoons. It is rare to find a recording of this with the lyrics, but Shelby Flint had a hit with it in the '60s.

A D A G
A month of nights, a year of days, Octobers drifting into Mays;
A D
I set my sail as the tide comes in
And I just cast my fate to the wind.

I shift my course along the breeze; won't sail upwind on memories.
The empty sky is my best friend,
And I just cast my fate to the wind.

BRIDGE: [chords unknown]

Time has such a way of changing someone throughout the years;
And now I'm rearranging my life through all my tears alone, alone.

There never was, there couldn't be,
A place in time for those like me,
Who'd drink the dark and laugh the day
And let their wildest dreams blow away.

BRIDGE REPRISE:

So, now I'm old, I'm wise and smart;
I'm just someone with half a heart.
I wonder how it might have been
Had I not cast my fate to the wind.
