

Songs From The Wood

Words & Music:
Ian Anderson (Jethro Tull)

C                      Bb      Cm      Dm      G7sus4
Let me bring you songs from the wood.
Eb6(9)                      G              Csus4                      F
To make you feel much better than you could know.
G                      F                      G                      F
Dust you down from tip to toe, show you how the garden grows,
G                      F
Hold you steady as you go, hold steady as you
Bb              F                      Gm
Join the chorus if you can.
            Ab              Eb                      Fm      C
It'll make of you an honest man.
C                      Bb      Cm      Dm      G7sus4
Let me bring you love from the field.
Eb                      G                      F
Poppies red and roses filled with summer rain.
            G/F                      F                      G/F                      F
To heal the wound and still the pain that threatens again and again.
            G/F                      F
As you drag down every lovers' lane.
Bb                      F      Eb      F/Eb      Gm
Life's long celebration's here.
            Ab              Eb              Db              Fm      C
I'll toast you all in penny cheer
                            Bb/D      Cm              Dm      G7sus4
Let me bring you all things refined
Eb      Bb              G                      G/C                      C
Galliards and Lute songs served in chilling ale.
G/F                      F                      F/C
Greetings! Well met! Fellow, hail!
F G/F                      F                      F/C              F              G/F              F/C              F
I am the wind to fill your sail. I am the cross to take your nail.
            Bb              F                      Eb      F/Eb      F/G      Am
A singer of these ageless times
            Ab              Eb                      Db              Fm      C
With kitchen prose and gutter rhymes
Em                      G      D/F#                      B
Songs from the Wood make you feel much better!
