

I Want A Little Sugar In My Bowl

Words & Music:
Nina Simone

I want a little sugar in my bowl.
I want a little sweetness down in my soul.
I could stand some lovin', oh, so bad.
Feel so lonely and I feel so sad.

I want a little steam on my clothes.
Maybe I could fix things up so they'll go.
What's the matter, daddy? Come on, save my soul.
Drop a little sugar in my bowl, I ain't foolin',
Drop a little sugar in my bowl.

Well, I want a little sugar in my bowl.
Well, I want a little sweetness down in my soul.
You been acting strangely, I've been told.
Move me daddy, I want some sugar in my bowl.
I want a little steam on my clothes.
Maybe I can fix things up so they'll go.
What's the matter, daddy? Come on, save my soul.
Drop a little sugar in my bowl, I ain't foolin',
Drop some sugar in my bowl.
