

The Paddle Song

Words & Music:
Traditional Round

My paddle's clean and bright,
*Flashing with silver.
Follow the wild goose flight,
Dip, dip and swing.

Dip, dip and swing it back.
*Flashing with silver.
Follow the wild goose flight.
Dip, dip and swing.

*subsequent parts enter here

Correspondent Tony Meanwell reminds me that "at the end of the song, you're supposed to say 'dip, dip & swing' three times". I remember singing that version as a kid at camp in Tennessee and the version as given above when I went to camp in New Hampshire about 7 years later.